Mt. Washington Alpine Adventure Camps will meet their leaders at the picnic tables between the skills centre and the Bradley building courtyard. This is also where parents/guardians will pick children up at the end of the day.

To avoid disappointment, we strongly recommend advanced reservations for all children's programs.

On the first day of participation, a parent/guardian will be required to complete waivers for each child as well as provide any outstanding information for emergency purposes. Please ensure the camp leaders are made aware of any health concerns and/or allergies for the child.

To effectively participate in the bike option children must have basic bike skills.
